The COVID pandemic is of course on everyone's minds. We were contacted by one of the previous convenors of the Migration submit to the magazine?
I am currently reviewing two pieces by assistant professors based in Canada on the impact of COVID on forms of mobility, which You mentioned to me that the magazine has greatly expanded recently. Can you say a little more about that? only one part of the constant universal flow of materials and ideas. Our issues so far have covered topics including 'Climate Change in a popular style. It is a tall order, but the high calibre of our 9 issues has included eclectic mixes of personal stories, in-depth

What interventions were you hoping to make with publication.

Tell us a little bit about the founding of UBC Migration is establishing a new interdisciplinary research group. Called 'Narratives,' the group's research will focus on the

By investigating settler, migrant, refugee, and Indigenous narratives the Narrative Research Group will seek to identify alternative

UBC Sociology, Bethany Hastie, Assistant Professor in the Allard School of Law and Bronwyn Bragg, a PhD candidate in UBC

COVID-19's impact on global supply chains and precarious labour pools poses an acute risk for Canada and other countries around

A Companion to Greeks Across the Ancient World explores the mobility and migration of Diaspora communities often play an important role in responding to disasters in their home countries. From fundraising, to pro-

Kathy Sherrell
Journeys to Integration:
Government-Assisted Refugees in BC

UBC Migration launches COVID-19 podcast series

Recent Publications from Cluster Members

Future episodes, to be recorded in early June, will feature discussions of the pandemic's impact on immigrant communities,

Even though there has been an increased awareness of the effects of COVID-19, the impacts of this pandemic are not equally

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Diaspora communities in Canada have been called upon to assist with the pandemic

Kathy Sherrell (PhD) and Grace Newton (MA)      FEBRUARY 2020

Recent Publications from Cluster Members

Future episodes, to be recorded in early June, will feature discussions of the pandemic's impact on immigrant communities,

Even though there has been an increased awareness of the effects of COVID-19, the impacts of this pandemic are not equally

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Diaspora communities in Canada have been called upon to assist with the pandemic

Kathy Sherrell (PhD) and Grace Newton (MA)      FEBRUARY 2020

Recent Publications from Cluster Members

Future episodes, to be recorded in early June, will feature discussions of the pandemic's impact on immigrant communities,

Even though there has been an increased awareness of the effects of COVID-19, the impacts of this pandemic are not equally

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Diaspora communities in Canada have been called upon to assist with the pandemic

A Companion to Greeks Across the Ancient World explores the mobility and migration of