

Acceptance of an award in the Centre for Migration Studies (CMS) International Art Competition requires that artists give consent to CMS to feature their works digitally on the website and in CMS and future International Art Competition promotional material. CMS may also want to use the winning artworks for future purposes as well, with consent from the artists. CMS may further publish the artwork in print and/or electronically for educational, media, and promotional purposes only. This includes promotional materials, such as flyers, posters, newsletters, websites, and social media.

Consent to Use of Image

I hereby give the UBC Centre for Migration Studies (“CMS”) permission to use my submitted artwork and images of me, including any motion picture or still photographs provided to or made by CMS of my likeness, poses, acts and appearances or the sound records made by CMS of my voice (“Images”) for any purposes in connection with promoting CMS and its activities (the “Purposes”), which may include advertising, promotion and marketing. CMS may crop, alter or modify Images of me and combine such Images with other images, text, audio recordings and graphics without notifying me.

I understand that my personal information, including Images of me, is being collected under section 26 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.B.C 1996, c. 165, for the Purposes. I consent to my name and any other information I provided to CMS being displayed in connection with the appearance of my submitted artwork and images of me. I consent to any of my personal information, including Images of me, being stored, accessed or disclosed outside of Canada.

Any questions about the videotaping, photographing and audiotaping should be directed to the Centre for Migration Studies.

I am 19 years or older and can sign this contract in my own name. I have read and understood this form before signing it, and I am aware that by signing this consent I am permitting CMS to use my submitted artwork and images of me for the Purposes.
